

Coffee to Talk Before Welcome Wagon Members

Tom Coffee, Republican nominee for Congress from the 17th Congressional District, will speak on the elimination of World War II excise taxes and the controversial Connolly Amendment when he appears before the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club at 12:30 p.m. today at the Redondo Elks Club, 315 Esplanade in Redondo Beach.

Coffee, who is making his first bid for the office, also will discuss tax allowances for college students, equal pay for equal work regardless of sex, and increasing dependency allowances.

The nominee, an electrical engineer who resides at 6749 W. 87th Place, Westchester, is married and has four children. He is active in the YMCA, Westchester Methodist Church, and the American Legion. He is a veteran of World War II and holds the rank of major.

Registration Set at Temple Menorah School

Burt Belzer, Chairman of Religious School Committee of Temple Menorah of the South Bay announces that registration for religious school is in progress. Those interested are requested to enroll their children in person at the Temple Building, 112 North Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

Two evenings have been set aside for the convenience of parents; Thursday, Sept. 8 and Wednesday, Sept. 14 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Norman Horowitz, Director of Religious Education, will be available at these times to meet students and parents.

Temple Menorah's Religious School is affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the Bureau of Jewish Education. A fine religious educational program is offered for children 5 through 16 years of age every Saturday morning, beginning on Sept. 17. Children must be at least 9 years of age to be eligible for Hebrew instruction on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Hebrew classes will begin on Sept. 20.

Those interested in obtaining more detailed information may contact Rabbi Henri Front at the Temple Office, FRontier 9-5983.

K of C Plan Dinner, Leap Year Show

Reservations are now being accepted for a dinner party and fashion show to be presented by the Los Crusados council of the Knights of Columbus at the council chambers, 214 Avenue I, Redondo Beach, on Monday, Sept. 19. Time for the affair is 7:30 p.m.

An "unusual" fashion show will be featured during and after the dinner, according to Howard Hood, chairman of the council social event. "Leap year" reservations for the dinner program must be made by wives or mothers of council members. A limited number of seats will be available for the public.

A telephone call to Hood at FR 5-6901, Joseph Piatt, FA 8-6746, or Lyle J. O'Hara, FA 8-1245, will confirm reservations for the dinner and fashion show.
